

Build the language of faith!

AMS Pilot Program Phase I Recommendations for Play

Games organized by content

- Quizzle Me Too: for the youngest learner or those new to the faith (kindergarteners and 1st graders start here and may need a partner to help with reading)
- Look It Up: a Catholic vocabulary game for challenge levels 2, 3 and 4
- Cardinal Challenge: the Catechism game
- Quizzle Me First Holy Communion: sacramental preparation for 2nd grade and up
- Quizzle Me Confirmation: sacramental preparation for all ages
- Jacob's Ladder: Old Testament game
- Prince of Peace: New Testament game
- The Saints Are Coming: a lives of the saints game
- CatholicQuiz of the Week: a new quiz, reflection and discussion questions posted every Sunday night for the coming Sunday readings

Games designed for playfulness

- Race the Clock: speed through each question and earn lots of CQ-IQ points
- Survival: 20 question game but one wrong and you're out
- Sacred Songs: name that tune style fun with liturgical music
- How Random: a game of chance that pulls from all knowledge categories

Or, total control

- Open Wide the Gates: all knowledge categories, all challenge levels... you choose

Must See Game Features

- Multiplayer feature to allow a parent, sibling or friend to play together with your students as a guest on the site
- Learn more with single click-through references to online sources including exact Catechism paragraph, Bible chapter and verse, and more!
- Look It Up pop-up for complete definitions
- Print or email Certificate of Achievement – great for younger students or anyone who wants to share learning achievements with an out-of-town parent, other relative or friend
- Post-game Review All or Oops! What did I miss? for reinforcement and exploration
