IDEAS FOR USE RCIA Leaders Vol. 1

Help adult learners to connect and have fun while learning!

Grab their attention! Find out what they know!

Where to Start? Play How Random for an informal assessment of group strengths and weaknesses.

Who Wants To Be A Millionaire? Create a group competition with rising stakes and rewards. Allow students to play independently. Or, allow them to consult a friend or the entire group (But, it'll cost 'em!).

Connect to Primary Sources Play Cardinal Challenge, Jacob's Ladder or Prince of Peace and use the click-through references to explore the Catechism and Bible.

Great Discussion Starters Get your group warmed-up to your topic by selecting the Knowledge Category that best corresponds to the evening's material. Play Open Wide the Gates as a full group. Pause anywhere to discuss the material and let CatholicQuiz.com help you to grab their attention!

When You Sing, You Pray Twice Unfortunately, everyone can't win every time... But, what if you had to sing when your team loses Sacred Songs? Loosen up a group by playing a few Multiplayer rounds of Sacred Songs. Yes, losers have to sing. Keep the groups big and everyone will have fun!

Who's Smarter Than a Fifth Grader? As your group grows in their knowledge, challenge them to play at the Contender Challenge Level to prove they ARE smarter than a fifth grader!
