IDEAS FOR USE Teachers 9-12 Vol. 1

Beware! Courage Required Risk it all with a Students vs. Teachers CatholicQuiz.com Challenge. Better start studying!

Homework Roulette Play the game Survival in small groups using Lives of the Saints or Church History Knowledge Categories. The team that answers incorrectly researches and writes a journal entry (teachers choose the length) on the subject matter that correlates to the question they missed. Highly motivating! Great team play!

Focus on What's Important Use Build-A-Quiz to write your own Q+A that captures the most essential information from each unit you cover. Keep adding Q+A throughout the school year and encourage your students to play regularly using the game, Teacher Q+A. By the semester or year-end, they will be confident in their knowledge and ready for finals!

Great Discussion Starters Play Cardinal Challenge, Morality or select the Knowledge Category, Morality, in the game Open Wide the Gates, and play in teams in the classroom. When you Review All at the end of the game, open up classroom or small group discussion on the Q+A. You'll find some great discussion starters. What is greed? Is it morally wrong for a person to drive under the influence of alcohol?

Share It With Parents Play CatholicQuiz.com during passing periods on Back to School Night or Open House. Show parents' your Classroom Scorekeeper and let them play the same games played by your students. Keep the teams big to build their confidence and protect fragile parent egos...

Can You Say, Religion Bee? Play in traditional Religion Bee format. Read questions aloud from a game screen only you can see. Play without multiple-choice options – every question becomes direct response! Challenging, old-fashion fun for high school students.

Drill Down Into Details Use the click-through reference on any Q+A to drill down into detail and ask students WHY?...

When You Sing, You Pray Twice Unfortunately, everyone can't win every time... But, what if you had to sing when your team loses Sacred Songs? Loosen up a group by playing a few Multiplayer rounds of Sacred Songs. Yes, losers have to sing. Keep the groups big and everyone will have fun!
